read "Hillbilly Elegy" front to back and still believe Vance has much of anything helpful, let alone insightful or scholarly, to say about a so-called "culture in crisis" - whether that's Maigrets Failure (Inspector Maigret) to mean post-industrial Ohio, or Appalachian Eastern Kentucky, or some magical hand-waving that lumps together all of those "flyover" spaces full of poor white people with their pill addictions and economic decline - requires a level of disbelief-suspension bordering on the fantastical.
