Movies often use the trick of having the character fall in slow motion. We would also appreciate it if people would post the text Those Who Are Left in this link on appropriate web pages, blogs, and online forums. Focusing on the peculiarities of photography on the printed page and on the public wall, it will be argued that photographic portraits of countries can be understood as sites of intrinsic contradiction - where strict and authoritarian contents often live side by side with inventive and experimental forms, and where repetition and restraint may unexpectedly suggest hidden spaces of freedom.
