From Darkness Into Light: A Story Of Depression and Anxiety Through Poetry

During the next few years the Saints would experience some severe setbacks, including economic chaos brought on by the fall of the Church-sponsored Kirtland Safety Society bank, the resulting abandonment of the town of Kirtland, the apostasy and excommunication of the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon and other prominent brethren including Joseph's scribe, Warren Parrishthe eventual expulsion of the Saints from the state of Missouri, and even the arrest and imprisonment of Joseph and several other Church leaders for treason. What is important is not so much that these conditions appear to be, to a large extent, the irreversible product of contemporary societies.
