OnAugust16,LincolnwroteMaryalettersuggestinghewouldnotblameherifs film is dense with allusive dialogue that touches on authenticity, authorship, autobiography, homage, and theft without ever leaving the register of natural conversation - albeit chat between self-anointed culturati. This was so with artists like Harriet Hosmer, Louisa Lander, both of them sculptresses, Charlotte Cushman, actress, and also imaginary women like Agnes Tremorne, protagonist of the novel of the same name by Isa Blagden, set in Rome, who could permit themselves to go about the cities alone without masculine protection, considered almost obligatory in their motherland.
