This series is a chronicle written in the first person of a young girl's journey. You will always be my favorite Homilist. From his father, an extremely handsome man six feet in stature, and the author of a learned work commended by Voltaire, he inherited good looks, a striking presence, and literary facility; from his mother, an inordinate craving for knowledge, and conversational powers of a high order. He's got some serious faults but he's honestly just t Such a heartfelt read. A study by Carles and
