Martin Rattler; or, A boys adventures in the forests of Brazil

In the same fruitful few years of recovery from the physical battle against barbarism, the petite nineteenth-century French novels that buttressed the achievement of Madame Bovary and sometimes even preceded it-Constant's AdolpheMaupassant's Bel-AmiDaudet's Sappho- were translated by people who saw fidelity to them as a delightful but temporary duty, not as part of a long slog to corner a market. Awards prognosticators are not wrong about the chances for a "Hillbilly Elegy" directed by Ron Howard and starring Amy Adams.

The Taming of Elizabeth: A Pride and Prejudice Variation

If Jardine is right none may be wanted. Only a few years from now... The intrepid crew of the rogue submarine Thunderfish face a terrible responsibility.
